From: Santa
at the North Pole

Our breakfast was fantastic! Over 350 kind folks came to the Indian Hills Country Club in Opelousas and they were very generous. The chefs and helpers all out did themselves. I heard lots of beautiful laughter. If you've sent your donation in, I want to sincerely thank you.

Santa is well known for talking about the "Good News" in our community. Today, I have to talk about the news that isn't so good.

Over the past year, some sources of funding have decreased at the Opelousas Area Cerebral Palsy Clinic. Your donations go to therapy treatments for our kids. And now, your donations are the largest part of the clinic's budget. Lower funding means less treatment and fewer kids helped. Therapy isn't just about moving arms and legs: it means keeping hearts and lungs healthy. This is about giving a life to the kids.

If you haven't donated yet, PLEASE consider doing so. If you have, consider just a bit more. We do not want to turn down any child who needs this life giving help.

I hope to see you at next year's breakfast. Thank you and please ask friends and family to support this good work.

15 minutes of therapy for $15 dollars

Due to the kindness and generosity of our therapists, we're able to provide 15 minutes of therapy for $15 for a child. There are three types of therapy that the clinic provides:

- (1) Physical therapy –working the larger muscles and motor skills, arms and legs
- (2) Occupational therapy –working the finer muscles, gripping and grabbing with the hands
- (3) Speech therapy – critical for the children to communicate their needs

For each $15 donation, we will send you this new beautiful, well made pin featuring the face of the CP Clinic's REAL Santa Claus --- see picture below. Designed by Matthew Peck, son of Susie and Alex Peck, and produced by Andrepont Printing, these pins let your friends and family know how important the Opelousas Area Cerebral Palsy Clinic is and invites them to participate in Breakfast with Santa. Local businesses have all stepped up to cover the costs of the pins so, just as every fundraiser at the CP Clinic, 100% of your donation goes to providing treatment and therapy for our kids.
